

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

December 15, 2017

Case No. F-2016-01568
Segment: PA/EX-0011,0012,
L/PD-0001, 0002

Arthur Spitzer, Esq.
American Civil Liberties Union of the Nation's Capital
4301 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Suite 434
Washington, DC 20008

Dear Mr. Spitzer:

I refer to our letter dated October 16, 2017, regarding the release of certain Department of State records under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") 5 U.S.C. § 552.

The review of 374 documents responsive to your request has been completed and we have determined that 2 documents may be released in full, 213 documents may be released in part, and 159 documents must be withheld in full pursuant to FOIA Exemptions 5 and 6, 5 U.S.C. §§ (b)(5) and (b)(6).

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made excisions, the applicable exemptions are marked on each document. In some cases, two or more exemptions may apply to the same document. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released. All released material is enclosed.

We will keep you informed as your case progresses. If you have any questions, please contact DOJ Trial Attorney Ryan Parker at 202-514-4336 or ryan.parker@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Susan P. Weinman for". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Eric F. Stein, Director
Office of Information Programs and Services

Enclosures:
As stated.

The Freedom of Information Act (5 USC 552)

For your review, attached are the vignettes of a manuscript entitled "Pakistan: Yesterday and Tomorrow" written in private capacity by a State Department FSO who was the CAO Islamabad at her previous assignment and B6 currently works in WHA as PAO.

The book comprises twenty-five chapters and each chapter was reviewed and approved for publication based solely on the provisions of 3 FAM 4170 on November 2, 2015 by PPD, SRAP, and Mission Pakistan.

We would appreciate hearing from you on this review request by COB Friday, June 17. Please see attached Ms. responses to the standard questions for additional details.

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
 - o Public Affairs Officer, WHA/HSC
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
 - o Private
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?
 - o Royalties, which in my case will not amount to that much
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - o Yes: "The views expressed are those of the author and not necessarily those of the U.S. Department of State, the employee's agency, or the U.S. Government."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - o This is the continuation of a previous project cleared in November 2015 for publication by PPD, SRAP, and Mission Pakistan.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
 - o Inkwater Press
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - o Vignettes of the collection are set in Pakistan but NOT about my duties. Attached three pieces are not set in Pakistan.

Good morning!

As separate from my request last week, I'm submitting TPs for a proposed upcoming talk at the Brussels chapter of the Young China Watchers. This is a very informal event.

Let me know if you need anything else at the moment.

Best,

[REDACTED]

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT REQUEST FORM

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: [REDACTED], Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP

Date of event: July 11, 2016

Venue Name, City and State: Eno Atelier (wine bar), 42 rue de Dublin, Brussels

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: Young China Watchers
Brussels, <http://redirect.state.sbu?url=http://www.youngchinawatchers.com/category/locations/brussels/>

Subject of Discussion: "What do we really know about the Chinese leadership? Gossip, guanxi, and guesswork"

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): Informal remarks (10-15 minutes) followed by Q&A

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): 15-20 attendees, most under 40, likely a mix of academics, think tankers, government, and other local China-watchers

Media (open press, closed press): No media.

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): I'll state that Chatham House Rules apply.

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]: None yet.

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: No

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: Personal capacity

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): Discussion and exchange with the broader China-watching community deepens INR connections and insights.

Decided with Judy Mann's (L Ethics) kind guidance to turn down the honorarium. Too many shades of gray.

As you may recall, I had completely forgotten that there was an honorarium and do most of my academic writing without any thought of payment.

You won't see me panhandling by Foggy Bottom Metro entrance! No worries.

Thanks for asking. [REDACTED]

Please find answers to your questions below. I would note that in addition to speaking and writing for the Public Diplomacy Council, I taught a course on public diplomacy to stave off conflict including engagement with faith based communities at George Mason University's School of Conflict Analysis and Resolution in 2013. Much of my systematic thinking on this subject came from organizing a curriculum on that subject.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES/MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol? [redacted] WAE, ECA-PE-VFA
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity? Private academic capacity
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration. No remuneration
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read? Wasn't intending to but would be pleased to do so if PA so recommends. Disclaimer would highlight that the history and views in the article are my private views and do not represent the Department.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)? No one, this is an academic piece written in the context of the work of the Public Diplomacy Council and reflects on my own experiences except for examples presented from way back in my career. The Bangladesh example is drawn from my last year of active foreign service in 2010.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication? Public Diplomacy Council publication
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year? Absolutely not
- Best Contact Information (e-mail and phone number): [redacted], [redacted]

Subject: Does this Piece Need a Pre-publication Review?

Dear PA colleagues,

Attached, please find an essay I wrote after a panel I chaired on the subject sponsored by the Public Diplomacy Council, an academic NGO, in fall of 2013.

They want to include it as a chapter in a book. Erring on the side of caution, I told them I would need to submit it to PA.

The creation of the current Religion and Global Affairs structure is relatively current and what I've written is based entirely on public sources. I cover the creation and the speeches given at the dedication and the structure. I know little about the inner workings of this new structure and have not written about the way it has involved or the way it works beyond the bare facts of its creation.

I have not been a part of any related structure since my last job heading the Office of International Religious Freedom in 2009-2010 at which point I retired from the Foreign Service after a 30 year career. I have done WAE work but not in any field related to the religion and diplomacy theme.

Some of the earlier anecdotes from my career contained in the piece have been cleared by PA in the context of a chapter I authored almost 10 years ago. The current ECA programs I know about from my support of Imam Bashar's work, rather than by direct involvement in my career or inside knowledge of the Department. Again, all of this information is available on his websites and in his literature,

My editor was surprised I felt I needed to submit the piece but I feel I do. She is hoping that we could have your approval or a nod that nothing here is sensitive by a week from today. I know that may not be realistic, but I'm hoping someone could give it a quick read to see if anything needs closer examination.

Many thanks for your help.

SCA and WHA Colleagues:

For your review, attached is a 389-page fictional novel entitled "Enemy of the Good," written in private capacity by FSO in EAP/MLA.

SCA Colleagues: The novel appears to take place primarily in Kyrgyzstan with many interactions with the U.S. Embassy.

WHA Colleagues: There are many references to Cuba and US-Cuba relations in this novel.

I am also including L/Ethics on this e-mail, as the author intends to receive remuneration for the publication of this novel.

We would appreciate hearing from you by Monday, July 11. Please see attached Mr. responses to the standard questions for additional details.

B6

I'm returning this to PA and requesting it's assistance in running the review process for the offices listed. FRO has identified possible interagency interest, which is why we're sending to PA to coordinate the DC review per 3 FAM 4170.

I suggest that the article be reviewed by the following offices: S/P (dissent channel), INR (intel community - NSA), DGHR/PC (AFSA), SCA/PPD, and PA. The Final Review Office at post does not believe that the article contains any any classified information or would have "adverse consequences" according to the review standard in 3 FAM 4176.3(b). Some may, however, find the article controversial, but it does not meet the standard that would recommend prohibition of publication.

Good morning PA Reviews,

I'm sorry to pile so much on in such a short time, but as this hews very closely to the content I recently sent for my talk in Brussels, I hope it won't be too much more work for you.

Many thanks as ever for your patience, and please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
 - [REDACTED] Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
 - Personal capacity – I am a visiting fellow at a think tank
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
 - No. As part of my fellowship, the think tank is providing housing while I am in Berlin, but I am not being paid for this article.
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - Yes, I plan to have a statement in the article that says, "This article reflects the personal views of the author and not necessarily the views of the U.S. Government or the Department of State." Please see attached.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - No one at State has yet cleared.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

- This article will be published on the MERICS blog (hosted by the institute where I am currently a fellow).
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - Yes, in INR my secondary (backup) portfolio covers China leadership issues.

PA Reviews Team,

I have attached a draft essay I plan to submit for publication in a book of essays on the history of U.S. military and naval advisers in foreign countries. My supervisor, Christopher Morrison, has reviewed the draft and, below, determined that nothing in it prohibits publication.

Please advise on the next steps I should take to move my work through the PA review process.

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: Program Analyst, A/GIS/IPS/PP/LA

Date of event: 6/28/2016

Venue Name, City and State: Newseum, Washington, DC

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: The South and Central Asia Division at the Voice of America

Subject of Discussion: Islam and America (my portion will focus on Islamophobia)

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): Panel discussion

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): About 100, most likely working professionals

Media (open press, closed press): VOA is hosting the event so they would be the primary media outlet

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): background

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]: *Pending supervisor

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: No

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: Personal

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): Facilitating an open dialogue on Islam in America and the rise of Islamophobia, can only yield positive outcomes and help to encourage inclusivity, tolerance and understanding toward an often misunderstood minority group.

Subject: Possible Participation on Panel at Newseum

Good afternoon PA Clearances,

The South and Central Asia Division at the Voice of America is organizing a panel at the Newseum on Islam and America on Tuesday June 28th at 10 am. I was asked to participate to discuss what role Islamophobia has played in my life recently as a private citizen. My intention is to speak in my own private capacity as a citizen with no reference to my official duties. Inclusion in this panel has to be officially confirmed by their organizers, which is still pending. However, I wanted to get a head start on the formal clearance process, just in case, given the relatively short turnaround time. Your guidance is greatly appreciated.

Many thanks,

Hello,

I am submitting the attached book review of Muhamad S. Olimat's China and Central Asia in the Post-Soviet Era for approval. It will be sent to Central Asian Survey, an academic journal.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

Fellow/Foreign Affairs Officer, EUR/CARC

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

--In private capacity.

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

--No.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

--Yes. It reads: "The ideas expressed are solely the author's opinions and do not represent the United States Department of State or any other agency."

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

--No one else has read it.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

-- Central Asian Survey (or similar academic journal)

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

--No. I don't work on Central Asia or China, but Central Asia is geographically next to the South Caucasus, separated by the Caspian Sea.

Dear Mr. [redacted]

The Department has completed the review of your article Why a Pardon for Edward Snowden is in our Foreign Policy Interest pursuant to 3 FAM 4170, and finds no obstacle to publication, provided that you include the disclaimer required for personal capacity public communications (see 3 FAM 4176.1), that the views expressed are yours alone and not necessarily those of the U.S. Government. To clarify that your article is not based on insider information, the Office of the Legal Advisor asks that you use the following language for the disclaimer:

"The views expressed are the author's alone and do not necessarily reflect those of the U.S. Government. The author has no insight into the contents of the classified U.S. Government information Snowden is accused of disclosing without authorization, nor the effect of unauthorized disclosure on U.S. Government interests other than what he has gleaned from public sources."

One recommendation to make one of the points more precise is listed below for your consideration:

Likewise, US international broadcasting maintains a robust online presence for every country and language it targets. The Broadcasting Board of Governors also promotes circumvention technologies, that allow audiences living behind censoring and surveilling firewalls to have unrestricted access to any available online information.

Dear EUR Colleagues:

Attached is a 4-page Medium Blog Post entitled Losing Hearts and Minds: From Brexit to November, written in private capacity by [redacted] Executive Assistant in the EB FO. We would appreciate hearing from you by COB Thursday, July 14. Please see Mr. [redacted] responses to the standard questions below for additional details.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES/MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

- [redacted], Executive Assistant, EB FO

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

- Private capacity.

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

- No.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

- Yes. The ideas expressed are solely the author's opinions and do not represent the United States Department of State or any other agency.

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

- EB Assistant Secretary and PDAS.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

- Medium.com (a social media blog site)

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

- Trade policy is covered in EB. Since I work in the front office, I am tangentially related to these issues. However, my views in the piece are not informed by the job nor does it include sensitive information.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you,

Hi Everyone-

Thanks for the intro, Luke (BCC'd).

One point of clarification - I left the Sports Diplomacy team in ECA last year to begin a one-year International Affairs Fellowship through the Council on Foreign Relations, so I technically belong to HR for "long-term training". Over the past year, as part of my research, I've conducted almost 20 (and counting) interviews with athletes, journalists and policy makers to discuss the interplay between sports and government.

I've attached transcripts of my first six interviews here. I've also included links to the .mp3 files below. I will also send individual requests to: PAReviews@state.gov.

- Please provide your first and last name, current job title and office symbol
[REDACTED] International Affairs Fellow, HR/CFR
- Is this podcast in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
Private capacity
- Will you receive remuneration outside of your Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
No
- Do you intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
Yes. "The views and opinions expressed by the guests of the DiploSport podcast do not necessarily represent the official policy or position of any agency of the United States Government or any organization, public or private."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
I don't have a supervisor, per se. I have sent these to ECA/PD (Nathan Arnold) and the ECA SportsUnited Office (Ann Cody) for clearance.
- Where will this podcast air? Where will the audio/transcript be posted?
I would like to air them in a weekly format, beginning in August around the Olympics. I haven't found a Podcast channel for them yet, but have discussed the possibility with the CFR and Sports Illustrated. I would also entertain the idea of releasing them myself via a "DiploSport" Podcast on iTunes. I have about 18 in the can right now, and would like to finish up 6-10 more before the end of my Fellowship in Sept.
- Does the podcast relate to your current duties or over the last year?

B6

No. I conducted the interviews on my own time, travelling at my own expense over the course of my fellowship year. I was the Sports Diplomacy Cultural Affairs Officer in ECA from May '13-May '15, but haven't been in that role for more than a year.

- Please provide contact information (telephone and e-mail).

Thank you for your email. My answers are below.

Best regards,

[redacted]

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol? [redacted]
Foreign Service Officer, FSI/NEA
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity? Private capacity
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration. Not sure. If this book is published, it will likely bring in remuneration. However, I may end up paying costs out-of-pocket.
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read? I defer to PA on whether or not this is necessary. The manuscript does not mention my job as an FSO or the State Dept at all.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)? No one. This manuscript is not work-related.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication? I will find a publishing house. TBD.

- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year? No.
- Best contact information (e-mail and telephone)

Dear Public Affairs,

Please find attached the draft of a book I would like to publish. I am a Foreign Service Officer and am submitting the draft to you for review per the FAM guidelines. The book is a personal story about my late father, a Syrian who immigrated to the United States in 1961, and a chronicle of his life. He passed away in 2014 and I began writing the book soon thereafter.

Subject: Personal capacity article for review - MERICS Web Special

B6

RELEASE IN PART B6

Good morning PA Reviews,

Attached please find another personal-capacity article for your review. It was co-authored with a colleague here at MERICS.

PLEASE NOTE: In addition to the graphics, pictures, and charts in the attached, there are also two original videos that we have created as supplementary material for our manuscript. They are linked to from near the top of page 4 in the attached manuscript. The text is as follows:

See for yourself: click here for a compilation of press conference footage of Jiang Zemin, Zhu Rongji, Hu Jintao, Wen Jiabao, Xi Jinping, and Li Keqiang. An extended version is also available here.

The short video is only a condensed version of the long video – it does not contain any additional content.

Below you will find the standard question/answer list for personal-capacity articles; please let me know if you require any further information at this time.

I will be away from my work email accounts for the next week, so please send any correspondence to this email account.

Thank you!

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

Personal capacity – I am a visiting fellow at a think tank

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.

No. As part of my fellowship, the think tank is providing housing while I am in Berlin, but I am not being paid for this article.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

Yes, I plan to have a statement in the article that says, "This article reflects the personal views of the author and not necessarily the views of the U.S. Government or the Department of State." Please see attached.

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

No one at State has yet cleared.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

This article will be published as a "Web Special" on the MERICS website (hosted by the institute where I am currently a fellow).

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

Yes, in INR my secondary (backup) portfolio covers China leadership issues.

Tameika,

Thank you for talking to Rachel and me. Attached please find the my book. I would have submitted saved drafts of this book sooner, but I kept making substantial edits. But with this version, the substantial editing is complete so I will delete the other potential submissions.

Here is more information:

- I am in OBO/CFSM/FAC
- I was not intending on using a disclaimer as I am not writing this book as a DOS PSC/employee and I do not mention OBO or DOS in the book at all.
- I intend to self-publish..
- The subject is diversity and inclusion

Please let me know if you need anything else.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
 - [redacted] F/NEA
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
 - private capacity
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?
 - No
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - Yes. "The views expressed in this article are solely those of the authors."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - I have spoken to my supervisor, Laura Hall, (Department of State civil service) and my contract supervisor as I am a contractor with the Department.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article for publication?
 - Primarily military journals such as Parameters/Joint Force Quarterly/etc.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - Duties relate tangentially, however, the ideas in the article were shaped largely prior to commencing work as a contractor with the Department of State. The experience and relevant knowledge that went into this article originated from my work at the National Defense University (NDU) in the field of professional military education. This is co-written with a current NDU employee.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you.

Dear PA Reviews,

I am a new employee and prior to working at the State Department, I worked at Argonne National Laboratory. Though no longer being paid, I kept my association with ANL to facilitate correspondence on publications.

Effective 8/10/16 (tomorrow), I will no longer have any association with ANL. The corresponding author on the paper that I still have in process has been switched to another colleague. However, it will officially be published while I am an employee of the State. Therefore, I would like to obtain clearance from you and make sure I go through the proper procedures.

I should clarify that the subject matter of this paper has nothing to do with my work here at State. Additionally, you'll see on the cover page that I am being listed as neither an employee of State nor an employee of Argonne. I simply have no affiliation.

Please let me if you need any other information.

 Private capacity
- Will you receive remuneration outside of your Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
 No
- Do you intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 Yes. "The views and opinions expressed by the guests of the DiploSport podcast do not necessarily represent the official policy or position of any agency of the United States Government or any organization, public or private."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 Under my Fellowship, I don't have a State Dept. supervisor, per se. I have sent these to ECA/PD (Nathan Arnold) and the ECA SportsUnited Office for clearance.
- Where will this podcast air? Where will the audio/transcript be posted?

I would like to air them in a weekly format, beginning in August around the Olympics. I will release them myself via a "DiploSport" Podcast on iTunes. I have about 18 in the can right now, and would like to finish up 6-10 more before the end of my Fellowship in Sept.

- Does the podcast relate to your current duties or over the last year?

No. I conducted the interviews on my own time, travelling at my own expense over the course of my fellowship year. I was the Sports Diplomacy Cultural Affairs Officer in ECA from May '13-May '15, but haven't been in that role for more than a year.

Greetings Brenda,

I hope you are having a wonderful summer. I have been working on a project at Johns Hopkins, SAIS and am editing a book. I have been told by L and PA that I do not need clearances for editing something I have not written, so am proceeding in that way. However, I have now co-drafted a short prospectus for the future piece which will go at the end of this book. I am including it here and looking for your advice on whom to send it to in the Department. I believe it will have to go to EUR because it is about the Nordic region, but I know from last time that L changes who works on these.

The book project itself is called "Nordic Ways" and was born out of the increasing interest in the Nordic countries in the United States. It is a collection of 45 essays from prominent Nordic people across a vast array of disciplines (everything from architecture, arts, design, education, economics), and flows rather nicely with the outcomes and statements from the US-Nordic Summit hosted by President Obama earlier this spring.

Your advice would be, as always, most welcome, and I have attempted to answer those questions that I know will be asked by L, in advance....below.

I have not received, nor will I receive any financial compensation for this work.

I will place the appropriate language on the bottom of the page noting that these are my views and not necessarily those of the Department.

This work is being done as part of my secondment assignment to Johns Hopkins, SAIS.

Thanks Brenda and I look forward hearing back from you soon.

Regards, [redacted]

Hi Candice,

The disclaimer listed herein is fine to use. Or simply, "The views presented in this book are those of the author only and not necessarily those of the U.S. Government or Georgetown University". Thanks for checking.

Hello – Thank you for clearing Mr. [] publication. For clarification, is the language below sufficient enough along with the caveat for Mr. [] publication? He specifically would like to know what is the exact language that needs to be included in his disclaimer.

B6

The views presented in this book are the author's only and do not represent, in any shape or form, those of the United States Government or Georgetown University.

Many thanks, CH

Hi Candice,

To confirm, all of this language needs to be on or in the book? Can you confirm exactly what language (all or part of it) and where it needs to be listed? I just want to make sure I provide the correct instructions to the publisher.

Thank you!

Hi [REDACTED] - I believe in addition to your disclaimer you must include the following FAM disclaimer as well.
<http://arpsdir.a.state.gov/fam/03fam/03fam4170.html>

3 FAM 4176 PERSONAL CAPACITY PUBLIC APPEARANCES AND PUBLICATIONS

3 FAM 4176.1 General

(CT:PER-776; 07-27-2015)

(State/USAID)

(Applies to all Employees in the United States and Abroad)

- a. Employees who, in their personal capacity, wish to communicate publicly on matters that are clearly not "of Departmental concern" (see 3 FAM 4173) need not seek Department review under the procedures outlined herein, and need not use the personal capacity disclaimer discussed below in paragraph (b). If there is doubt as to the need to seek review or use a disclaimer, employees should seek guidance from the appropriate Final Review Office (see 3 FAM 4174.3(a)). Please note that all employee public communications must comply with the content rules in 3 FAM 4176.2.

- b. Unless the appropriate Final Review Office indicates otherwise, employees who are communicating publicly in their personal capacity on matters of Departmental concern must include a disclaimer indicating that the views expressed are their own and not necessarily those of the U.S. Government. However, such a disclaimer is not required when re-posting previously cleared and publicly disseminated U.S. Government content in a social media environment. Where such disclaimers are required but difficult to include (such as in a microblog character-limited format), employees must include information in their profiles indicating that their views are personal. In some cases, PA will provide specific disclaimer language as warranted by the topic or nature of publication.
- c. When engaging in personal capacity public communication, employees may generally not accept compensation if the activity "relates to the employee's official duties." See 11 FAM 600. If abroad, see also 3 FAM 4120, "Employee Responsibilities Abroad."
- d. An employee may not improperly use U.S. Government time or resources for preparing or conducting personal capacity communications. See 5 FAM 723. An employee also may not use his or her official title for personal capacity communications, except as part of a biographical text that includes the disclaimer discussed above in paragraph (b), and provided the reference to the title is not given any special prominence. Additionally, an employee may not violate other applicable ethical standards of character, integrity, and conduct, including, for example, the rules prohibiting the use of public office for private gain and the rules concerning prohibited political activity.
- e. As stated in 3 FAM 4174.2(c)(1), the review process is limited to three purposes. (See also 3 FAM 4176.4.) Therefore, completion of the review process is not a Department "clearance" or "approval" of the planned communication, and is not meant to insulate employees from discipline or other administrative action related to their communications, including for conducting personal capacity public communications that interfere with the Department's ability to effectively and efficiently carry out its mission and responsibilities, by, for example, disrupting operations, impairing working relationships, or impeding the employee from carrying out his or her duties. Ultimately, employees remain responsible for their personal communications whether or not the communications are on topics of Departmental concern.

Best, CH

- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year? No

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you.

Thanks, Grace. I did hear back from PA with approval, so long as I use the "personal opinion" disclaimer. That said, if Debra has any additional feedback, I welcome it.

As a heads-up, there's a business delegation from California that will visit the EWC in mid-October, so I'll likely tweak this brief and seek Department agreement that I can use it again at that time – I'll be in touch ahead of the event.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT REQUEST FORM

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: [redacted] State Department Fellow / Diplomat in Residence
(note: this is NOT a Diplomat in Residence position under HR, for recruitment), FSI/SR/UT

B6

Date of event: TBD, hopefully as soon as 29 September if PA clears in time; could be the following week.

Venue Name, City and State: East-West Center, Honolulu, HI

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: East-West Center

Subject of Discussion: US-China relations

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): 30 minutes of briefer (me) talking with power points slides (emailed to you separately but reattached here), followed by 30 minutes of Q&A / discussion

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): around 30 mid-career professionals who are in the East-West Center's Asia-Pacific Leadership Program

Media (open press, closed press): Media are not invited in their media capacity, but at least one member of the Asia-Pacific Leadership Program works in the media field

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): off the record

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]: EAP/P had no objection, based on this being an off-the-record presentation in my personal capacity

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: no

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: personal

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): This provides the audience with a more accurate understanding of the rebalance to Asia and the US-China relationship.

Importance: High

Dear PA personnel,

I'm writing to you from the East-West Center, where I'm assigned for senior training under FSI auspices. (I'm an FS-1 officer, having just finished serving as POLAD at the Pacific Fleet and proceeding in the summer of 2017 to the position of Political Counselor in Jakarta; I've spent most of my career working in EAP.)

Part of my function at the East-West Center involves briefing non-USG visitors and participants in East-West Center programs. I've been asked to brief participants in the Center's Asia-Pacific Leadership Program (around 30 mid-career professionals from throughout the Indo-Asia-Pacific region) on US-China relations. I would not be reading a script, but I have drafted powerpoint slides (attached) that show the topics to be covered and the tone. The discussion would be off the record, and I do not anticipate any media coverage. Let me add that I am not seeking to be confrontational or provocative -- just to explain the rebalance, the importance of China to the United States, and the U.S. stance on various issues relating to China.

I would be grateful if you could clear on this presentation; I have already discussed it with EAP/P (Grace Choi is cc'ed), who posed no objection but helpfully referred me to 3 FAM 4170, which says that I need PA concurrence.

Since 3 FAM 4176.3 (a) says PA will consult with my supervisor, I have cc'ed her (Susan Emerson -- FSI's External Training Coordinator) on this email.

I anticipate this will be only the first of multiple off-the-record engagements. I would welcome any advice you might have on future submissions of similar material for similar audiences.

Thanks,

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you,

Good afternoon,

Attached please find a personal-capacity article for your review. It was co-authored with a colleague at DIA (which will be obvious from the heavy military focus in the second half).

NBR plans to put this draft article on a password-protected website on October 17 so that conference participants have a chance to review it. For your future awareness, I will be attending the accompanying conference on October 22 and 23 (for which I will be submitting TPs for clearance); after the conference we will revise the paper and it will be published as part of a conference compilation volume (for which, again, I will be submitting another version of this paper).

Below you will find the standard question/answer list for personal-capacity articles; please let me know if you require any further information at this time.

Thank you!

Greetings,

I have just returned from LWOP, during which I was teaching English in Istanbul, Turkey. I was there at the time that the coup attempt unfolded, and the aftermath. Since my return, I have been asked by a local chapter of Masons to talk about my experience as a Western woman living in Istanbul during that period, and will be monetarily compensated (modestly). Though I would be presenting in the capacity of a private citizen, I thought it prudent to clear this through PA.

Topic matter will include observations about culture, the role of religion, history, and of course, what it was like being there during the terrorist attacks and the coup attempt. I intend on stating a disclaimer during the presentation that I am NOT speaking in the capacity as a State Department employee, as I was not even in service at the time. I just want to ensure that this is sufficient.

Please advise at your earliest convenience. Thank you!

Subject: Talking points for review

Good afternoon PA reviews,

Attached please find the talking points I plan to use at an upcoming event, as well as the standard "speaking engagement request form" below. This event is related to the paper I submitted last week for review – the talking points are simply a shortened version of my half of the paper. I have only submitted my own talking points; the paper co-author will be speaking as well but is submitting his talking points to DIA for review.

Please let me know if you need anything else from me at this time.

Thank you!

[REDACTED]

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT REQUEST FORM

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: [REDACTED] Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP (my paper is co-authored with a colleague from DIA, who will be co-presenting)

Date of event: 10/23/2016

Venue Name, City and State: US Army War College, Carlisle, PA

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: The National Bureau of Asian Research, the Strategic Studies Institute, Department of the Army, US Pacific Command

Subject of Discussion: "The PLA and PAP in Counterterrorism Abroad: A Structured Exploration of a New Frontier"

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): Presentation (15 minutes total, half of which will be for my remarks) and Q&A

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): Approximately 80 academic and government audience/participants.

Media (open press, closed press): None

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): There will be no write-up of the conference proceedings – the conference is to help edit/improve the presented conference papers for eventual publication

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]: No one has yet cleared.

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: No – the sponsors are providing travel and accomodation, but I will not be accepting any money for speaking.

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: Personal capacity

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): Discussion and exchange with the academic community deepens INR connections and insights, and raises INR's profile within the academic community.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES/MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

- Franklin Fellow; EUR/CARC

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

- Private capacity.

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

- No.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

- Yes. The ideas expressed are solely the author's opinions and do not represent the United States Department of State or any other agency.

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

- No one else.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

- The journal, Contemporary British History.

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

- No. It is my own interest, which is unrelated to my work.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

11 FAM 616.1 Use of Public Office for Private Gain

(CT:POL-59; 09-03-2015)

- a. An employee shall not use his or her public office:
 - (1) For his or her own private gain; or
 - (2) For the private gain or preference of friends, relatives, or persons or entities with whom the employee is affiliated in a nongovernmental capacity (including but not limited to nonprofit organizations of which the employee is an officer or a member or persons or entities with whom the employee has or seeks employment or business relationships).
- b. An employee shall not use or permit the use of his or her Department position, title, or authority in a manner that is intended to coerce or induce another person (including a subordinate) or entity to provide benefits to the employee, the employee's friends or relatives, or persons or entities with whom the employee is affiliated in a nongovernmental capacity.
- c. An employee shall not use his or her Department position for the endorsement of any product, service, or enterprise, except where, in consultation with the employee's office, it is determined that it is:
 - (1) In furtherance of statutory authority to promote products, services, or enterprises;
 - (2) As a result of documentation of compliance with Department requirements or standards; or
 - (3) As the result of recognition for achievement given under a Department program of recognition for accomplishments in support of the Department's mission.
- d. An employee shall not use or permit the use of his Department position or title or any authority associated with his or her public office in a manner that could be reasonably construed to imply that the Department or the government sanctions or endorses his or her personal activities or those of another.
- e. Nothing in this section prohibits employees from participating in official commercial and business advocacy programs such as those which promote, develop, assist, support, or reach out to U.S. companies.

11 FAM 616.3 Use of Chief-of-Mission Residence (CMR)

(CT:POL-59; 09-03-2015)

- a. Apart from appropriate personal use by the ambassador and his or her family, the chief of mission's residence (CMR) may only be used for official purposes and functions. Unless otherwise authorized, it should not be used, with or without payment, by a nongovernmental entity for events that are not co-hosted by the Department.
- b. In order to use a chief-of-mission residence for a co-hosted event with a nongovernmental entity, post should ensure that:

- (1) If there will be fundraising at the event, it is approved per the procedures in 2 FAM 960;
- (2) There is a foreign affairs purpose for co-hosting the event;
- (3) No undue preference has been given to the co-host over other similar entities;
- (4) Co-hosting the event does not create a real or apparent conflict of interest for the Department or for any employees taking official actions with regard to the event;
- (5) Any use of promotional materials by the co-host is appropriate; and
- (6) Post retains control of the guest list for any co-hosted events.

Subject: Narcos Filming at Amb. Residence

Sharon,

I wanted to give you an update to follow our conversation about a month ago regarding the possibility of Netflix's Narcos filming a scene for Season 2 at the Ambassador's residence. The Ambassador invited the full production crew to his home in early December to give them a sense of what it looked like and at the same time invited them to film there. Filming has now been penciled in for January 29th. It should be about a one-day event.

Thus far, this will consist of just the filming itself. When we talked about it in November, it didn't seem like it was going to be an issue at all, but I just wanted to double check with you and see what paperwork, official permissions, etc. we need to get for the filming.

That being said, there is still the possibility that members of the mission will appear in the show. They will not-likely have speaking roles, but rather appear as extras. If this does happen, I assume I need to put in for PA clearance for them. Is that all I would need to do, or is there something else that I should be tracking?

At this point, I am just trying to make sure that I am tracking all the necessary things and not letting something small but important fall through the cracks until the very end. I really appreciate any guidance that you can give on both the filming itself and the possibility of members of the mission serving as extras in the show.

Best,

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT REQUEST FORM

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: Senior Foreign Research Analyst, INR/EAP

B6

Date of event: 01/16/2016

Venue Name, City and State: Association for Asian Studies (AAS) Southeast regional conference, Harrisonburg, VA

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: James Madison University is hosting; it is an AAS regional conference event

Subject of Discussion: "China's Portrayal of Japan in Its Rejuvenation Narrative of 2015" on a panel on Chinese and Japanese perceptions of history

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): Presentation and panel discussion (panel is from 10:30-12:15 on 1/16/16; my presentation will be about 25 minutes)

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): Academic audience/conference. Number of participants could range from about 20 to 50 (I doubt there will be that many)

Media (open press, closed press): This is an academic event; I doubt media will be present. However, I do not think it's "closed" to media either.

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): I'll state Chatham House rules for my section.

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]:

1. INR: Supervisor: INR/EAP Acting Director has reviewed and approved talking points; Vic Raphael, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for INR, also has reviewed and approved talking points.
2. EAP Bureau: I have sent the talking points to EAP/CM for clearance via e-mail.
3. EAP-P: I have sent talking points to EAP-P for clearance via e-mail.

B6

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: No

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: In a personal capacity, presenting personal views and not the views of the USG or Department of State

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): Academic research, based purely on Chinese foreign policy journals and open source materials. Discussion and exchange with the academic community deepens INR connections and insights.

I am attaching the talking points I plan to use.

Colleagues,

This weekend, I will present a paper on China's rejuvenation narrative, especially as it relates to Japan, based entirely off of foreign policy journal articles at the Association of American Studies' Southeast Regional Conference in Harrisonburg, VA. I request your review of the attached presentation – and your forgiveness for my late request (not a good excuse, but I did not expect last week to be so hectic). A list of sources used is at the back. I will have 25 minutes to present—longer than the usual State Department presentation.

INR also is reviewing. Please let me know if you think anyone else needs to see it, and of course whether I have caveated appropriately. I do not intend to distribute my talking points—just present them orally. If the paper is published later, I will resubmit a separate review process (and I promise to give more time for that review).

- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - Yes: Although my present work on the Foreign Relations of the United States series has given me access to classified records from the Reagan administration, the research and analysis presented in this article relies exclusively on publicly available sources consulted before I joined the Office of the Historian. The views expressed here are my own and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of State.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - Two PA/HO supervisors (William McAllister and Kathleen Rasmussen)
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication
 - Journal of Cold War Studies
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - Not directly, but the article covers a time period that coincides with my FRUS compiling work. My disclaimer makes clear that the article is based on research completed before I started at DOS and gained access to classified records.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);

3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you,

Hello,

I am submitting the attached book review for approval. It will be published by the Central Intelligence Agency's journal "Studies in Intelligence."

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

Fellow/Foreign Affairs Officer, EUR/CARC

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

--In private capacity.

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

--No.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

--Yes. The journal's disclaimer reads: "All statements of fact, opinion, or analysis expressed in Studies in Intelligence and CSI Publications are those of the Authors. They do not necessarily reflect official positions or views of the Central Intelligence Agency or any other US government entity, past or present."

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

--No one else has read it. It was submitted to "Studies in Intelligence" before I started at the State Department. But I am sending it for approval so the CIA can mention State in my byline.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

--"Studies in Intelligence," published by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

--No. It is my own interest, which is unrelated to my work.

Subject: [REDACTED] Manuscript for PA Review

Attached please find a book manuscript for PA Review. The book is slated to be listed publication by Beaufort Books (New York) pending completion of the PA Review. A previous iteration of this book was reviewed by PA in 2006 (letter attached) but it has been rewritten and some additional interview material has been added. The title of the book is "The Embassy" (previous working title "No Monkey No Dog").

Below is some additional information that may be helpful to reviewers:

The book deals with events in Liberia during a very narrow time frame, specifically June - August 2003, save a historical overview of Liberia in the prologue. In the 13 years since the conflict concluded, the following changes to people, places and events referenced in the book have happened:

- Charles Taylor was convicted in an international court and is in jail.
- The chancery was replaced with a new embassy building that opened recently at a separate site.
- Then-US Ambassador John Blaney retired from USG service.
- The ECOMIL peacekeeping operation in October 2003 became a UN PKO.
- The two rebel groups disbanded.
- JTF Liberia concluded its mission in October 2003.
- U.S. European Command, which had responsibility for US military support, has given way to AFRICOM, which did not exist then.
- The Special Court for Sierra Leone wrapped up operations in 2013.
- Then-Liberian Vice President and then-rebel leader "Cobra" have both passed away
- And of course in 2003 we were under the Bush administration and Colin Powell was Secretary of State.

Many thanks in advance for your kind consideration. Kindly contact me at this address and at [REDACTED] if you have any questions (as I have limited access to this account for the time being).

RELEASE IN PART
B6

Dear PA Clearances: Good afternoon. I've been asked by the Washington Independent Review of Books, which is an organ with internet and email distribution only, to review a nonfiction book in my personal capacity that makes some mention of State and considerably more mention of individuals elsewhere in government. The subject of the book is the struggle in the U.S. for cyber security over the last several decades.

The editors typically ask for reviews that are between 800-1200 words. I would identify myself in the review, if it is accepted, only as "a former journalist" (note: which is true), with no mention of any past or present government employment.

I haven't written the review yet, because I wanted to first find out from you how much time you think it would take to carry out the review process. The book I'm reviewing is going on sale as of March 1, so I'm sure the WIRB would like to post the review within the first week of its appearance in bookstores. If that's not likely to be feasible, then I'll want to let WIRB know so they can assign the review to someone else.

Please advise. Thanks very much, [redacted]

Subject: Request for clearance on article

Good afternoon,

I am seeking clearance on the attached article, which I have written as part of my fellowship at the Mercator Institute for China Studies (MERICS), and which will be posted on the MERICS website.

This is my first time submitting an outside publication for State review, so please let me know if I have missed any steps in the process. I will also be submitting the article to INR and to PA Clearances.

I am also cc'ing my MERICS email address, as my fob connection is quite slow; if you are comfortable replying to that email address as well I would very much appreciate it.

Thank you!

PA Reviews,

I have been asked to write a foreword to a compilation of English-language short stories to be published following a competition in Strasbourg, France. The competition is a collaboration of Strasbourg's main English-speaking associations: Americans in Alsace, the English Speaking Union, and the English Speaking Community - Alsace. It invites native and non-native English speakers to participate and is in its third year. More information is located on the website www.sxb-write-a-story.org.

Last year, the foreword was written by the UK Permanent Representative to the Council of Europe, Ambassador Matthew Johnson.

I think the competition is a worthy effort and would like to participate by submitting a foreword to this year's winning short story compilation. My draft foreword is attached. Please provide your input and clearance.

Many thanks,

Please see Mr. [REDACTED]'s responses to the standard questions below for additional details.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES/MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?

[REDACTED] Program Officer, DRL/GP

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

Private

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

No

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

Yes. My current disclaimer reads as follows, but I am happy to revise: "The opinions expressed here reflect the view of the author and do not necessarily represent the position of his employer."

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

My Office Director, Patricia Davis, has cleared. I am a law student by night and I took an International Law course from James Gresser (GresserJA@state.gov L/EUR), who teaches adjunct at Georgetown. As an outgrowth of that course, I developed an interest in a particular lawsuit related to foreign sovereign immunity. He has subject matter expertise in this area and understands State's equities.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

The American Criminal Law Review (a publication of Georgetown Law)

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

No, my official duties are grants management. However I will note that the DRL/MLGA office did analyze this lawsuit. They reached out to me, and I provided informal thoughts to them about the technological aspects of the case given my IT background. The most relevant person in that office is Jason Pielemeier (PielemeierJS@state.gov).

Dear Michael,

Hello from Kathmandu! This is [redacted] we met shortly before you went back to Washington for your current B6 post. I don't know if you recall, but I mentioned before you left that I was in the middle of the review process for a book on China. The book has finished reviews and final edits and is ready to be cleared. Would one of your staff be able clear this, or should I contact another office? The manuscript is relatively short (65,000 words) and was written without access to classified materials, so I am not expecting any particular problems.

The manuscript is attached, please let me know if there's any more information I can send you.

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
 - [redacted] Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
 - Personal capacity – I am a visiting fellow at a think tank
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
 - No. As part of my fellowship, the think tank is providing housing while I am in Berlin, but I am not being paid for this article.
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - Yes, I plan to have a statement in the article that says, "This article reflects the personal views of the author and not necessarily the views of the U.S. Government or the Department of State." Please see attached.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - No one at State has yet cleared.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
 - This article will be published in Internationale Politik, a German-language foreign policy magazine.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - Yes, in INR my secondary (backup) portfolio covers China leadership issues.
- Two further notes for you:
 - This article will be translated into German for final publication. The translation will be done by my colleagues here at the think tank rather than by the magazine to ensure faithful translation.
 - There will be no sources/citations included in the final publication, but I am including them in the attached to aid you and others in the review process.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

The Department has completed reviewing your book review of Phil Haun's Coercion, Survival, and War: Why Weak States Resist the United States, pursuant to 3 FAM 4170 and determined that you may proceed. However, there are some factual errors in the section on Yugoslavia-Bosnia-Kosovo that the desk has corrected using tracked changes in the attached for consideration. It was also recommended that you check the terminology for Serbia vice SFRY vice FRY throughout, in case this carries over into the manuscript.

As you know, the disclaimer required for personal capacity public communications (see 3 FAM 4176.1), that the views expressed in this paper are yours alone and not necessarily those of the U.S. Government, needs to be included.

Good morning!

As we discussed last week, I'm submitting TPs for a proposed upcoming talk at the local chapter of the Young China Watchers. This is a very informal event. You may recognize many of the attached talking points from my previously-submitted article!

Let me know if you need anything else at the moment.

Best,

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT REQUEST FORM

Speaker's name, title and office symbol: , Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP

Date of event: April 19 or 20, TBD

Venue Name, City and State: TBD, but possibly at MERICS or nearby restaurant in a private room.

Group/Organization Sponsoring the Event: Young China Watchers
 Berlin, <http://redirect.state.sbu?url=http://www.youngchinawatchers.com/category/locations/berlin/>

Subject of Discussion: Western misperceptions of Xi Jinping

Format (remarks with or without Q&A, panel discussion, keynote address, speech): Informal remarks (10-15 minutes) followed by Q&A

Audience (number of expected attendees and demographics): 15-20 attendees, most under 40, likely a mix of academics, think tankers, government, and other local China-watchers

Media (open press, closed press): No media.

Attribution (on-the-record, off-the-record, on background): I'll state that Chatham House Rules apply.

Clearances [supervisor, regional bureau (as appropriate), others]: None yet.

Is the speaker being compensated outside of his/her DOS salary to speak at this event?: No

Is the speaker presenting in an official or personal capacity at this event?: Yes

Recommendation (why this furthers U.S. interests): Discussion and exchange with the broader China-watching community deepens INR connections and insights.

Subject: Questions related to PA Clearances

Good morning!

Apologies for yet another email, but I had a few questions for you related to PA reviews:

- 1) For material that has been cleared and published, may I repost that material on a personal blog, as long as it contains the same caveat about it being my personal opinion, and links back to the original publication site? I am only looking to gather my personal publications in a single location, and don't seek to add any additional information to the published articles. I am unsure if I can repost that material without re-clearing it with you, given that it is technically a new venue.
- 2) I have been asked to give an informal 10-15 summary of the paper that is currently with you for review ("Xi Jinping: The Man, the Myth, The Party?") at a local meeting of the Young China Watchers here in Berlin. Do you want me to resubmit this paper as a series of talking points? I am happy to do so, I just don't want to inundate you if clearance on the paper would also extend to clearance on talking points drawn directly from the paper. Also, I am assuming it's acceptable to answer questions about my presentation/paper after presenting it in such a venue?

Thank you very much!

RELEASE IN PART
B6

Dear PA –

Requesting your clearance of the attached.

This magazine article was written by Chief of the Translating Division, Office of Language Services (A/OPR/LS). B6

Media Outlet: The ATA Chronicle, the monthly journal of the American Translators Association (ATA), the leading professional organization in the US translating industry

Type: Print media

When: To be published in Spring 2016 (pending Department clearance)

Article Subject: The article describes the challenges that language service providers—namely A/OPR/LS—face in staffing projects that include languages of limited diffusion.

Clearances: This article has been cleared by A/OPR Acting DAS Harry Mahar and the A Bureau Front Office.

Background: The Lingala translation was for S/WCI, the Coordinator for War Crimes issues, back in March 2010. The client (Todd Anderson) has moved on, and his old office is now the Office of Global Criminal Justice. The Divehi translation was requested by S/CT (Steven Carney). The office is now the Bureau of CT, back in March 2011. Mr. Carney has moved on and is not in the GAL.

Please let me know if you have any questions. We would appreciate clearance by Friday, March 18.

Thank you,
Renee

Dear EAP Colleagues:

For your review, attached is a 4-page preface to a collaborative book written in private capacity by B6 , a member of the Policy Planning staff. EAP previously cleared his introductory chapter "China's Approach to Governance Reform" for the same book "China's Approach to Governance Reform" last Fall. We would appreciate hearing from you by COB Thursday March 24.

Please see Mr. responses to the standard questions for additional details below.

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
o
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
o Private
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
o No
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
o Yes: The author wrote this chapter in his personal capacity. The chapter does not represent the views of the U.S. government..
- Who else has cleared?
o Not yet cleared, but the Office of Chinese and Mongolian Affairs (CM) in the East Asian & Pacific Bureau (EAP) is reviewing.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
o Cambridge University Press
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
o Not directly. My S/P portfolio covers international relations in the entire East Asian & Pacific region. This chapter is a theoretical analysis of administrative law reforms in China over the past 15 years, based on a quantitative research project that concluded in 2014, prior to me joining the State Department.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a written, detailed explanation.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you,

Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?

- Private capacity.

Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article?

- No.

Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?

- Yes. The ideas expressed are solely the author's opinions and do not represent the United States Department of State or any other agency.

Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?

- No one else.

Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?

- The academic journal "History" (or similar academic journal if that one declines to publish it.)

Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?

Subject: Request for clearance on (yet another Xi Jinping) article

Good morning PA Reviews,

I'm writing to request clearance on yet another version of the Xi Jinping paper you've seen several times now (attached). This one is for publication in June as part of a series of conference papers. The majority of the footnotes will be cut in publication, but I'm leaving them in in case anyone from State finds them useful for clearance purposes.

I'm including the standard list of questions and answers below (I tried to use the PA clearances website again, but it seems I still don't have the option to send directly to PA). Please let me know if you need anything else at this time. I hope that this is the last time you have to review a draft of the same paper!

All best,

QUESTIONS TO FOR AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
 - [REDACTED] Foreign Affairs Research Analyst, INR/EAP
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
 - Personal capacity – I am a visiting fellow at a think tank
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
 - No. As part of my fellowship, the think tank is providing housing while I am in Berlin, but I am not being paid for this article.

- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
 - Yes, I plan to have a statement in the article that says, "This article reflects the personal views of the author and not necessarily the views of the U.S. Government or the Department of State." Please see attached.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
 - No one in either EAP/CM or INR/EAP has yet cleared.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
 - It will be published as part of a compilation of papers submitted for a MERICS-hosted conference this June, called China's Core Executive: Leadership Styles, Structures and Processes under Xi Jinping. MERICS will be the publisher; the paper will go out both in electronic form on its website and in physical copy under the MERICS banner.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
 - Yes, in INR my secondary (backup) portfolio covers China leadership issues.

Dear Public Affairs Office,

The attached file, a manuscript titled "From 'Wall of Suspicion' to 'Atmosphere of Cooperation': The Institutionalization of Department of State Drug Diplomacy toward Mexico, 1969-1989" is a personal-capacity research piece that, pending your approval, I intend to submit for peer-reviewed publication to academic outlets such as the Journal of Policy History.

The piece is historical in nature and based on declassified and public sources, therefore it is unlikely to be considered of departmental concern. Still I wanted to be certain it is considered by your office to be appropriately so.

RELEASE IN PART B6

OBO Colleagues,

Attached is a 16-page chapter entitled "POE For Organizations With A Repetitive Building Type", written in private capacity by [REDACTED]. We would appreciate hearing from you by COB Friday, May 6. Please see the author's B6 responses to the standard questions below for additional details.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE ARTICLES/MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
[REDACTED] Post Occupancy Evaluation Program Manager, OBO/OPS/AM
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
The author is writing in his private capacity.
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
The author will not be receiving any remuneration for writing this material outside his/her Department of State salary.
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
The author is using a disclaimer of sorts – it does not reference the Department of State:
"...The POE methods in this chapter were developed for a specific organization. ...However, the organization's identity is kept anonymous. This should make the focus shift from the organization to the methods; and be more easily imagined to fit other organizations...."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
My supervisor has cleared. I have sent the material to OBO/External Affairs for further clearance. Please let me know if you need their clearance before you look at my material.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
This material will be one chapter in a text book on building evaluations. The principal editor organizing this book is Wolfgang Preiser. Dr. Preiser has published similar books in the past. I'm not sure who is publishing his book.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
Yes. The material describes the methods we have used to conduct building evaluations. While the manner of the methods are specific to our office, they follow generally accepted methods in the building industry.
- What is the best e-mail and phone number to reach you?

B6

Greetings – I have been invited to contribute to a text book on building evaluations for which I will not be remunerated. Attached is my first draft, including my biosketch.

The material describes methods I follow in the work I do at the Department of State's Bureau of Overseas Buildings Operations (OBO). However, these methods parallel similar research methods in the industry; and I make no mention of my affiliation at the Department in the material nor in my bio sketch.

Legal/Ethics (L/EFD) has advised me they need not review my material because I'm not compensated, also attached. The material has been reviewed, and approved by my supervisor; and I am having it reviewed by OBO's front office. Given that the material does not contain any reference to the Department, and that a disclaimer would actually be counterproductive, I was wondering whether your review and approval is still necessary. I look forward to your response.

EUR and PRM Colleagues,

Attached is a 12-page article entitled "Social Consequences of Seasonal Labor Migration: A Case Study from Rural Azerbaijan", written in private capacity by [REDACTED]. We would appreciate hearing from you by COB Friday, May 13. Please see the author's responses to the standard questions below for additional details.

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol? [REDACTED] EUR Policy Advisor. S/RGA
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity? Private
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? No
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? Yes. The opinions and conclusions expressed herein are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the views of the U.S. Department of State or any other governmental agency.
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)? None
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication? Palgrave Publishing; the chapter will be included in a volume accepted for publication in Palgrave's Pivot series, with a cross-publication in their diaspora series.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year? Yes, although the author wrote a dissertation on Azerbaijan and its relationship with Russia, so is an academic expert on the topic.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Under 3 FAM 4170, there are three circumstances in which an employee's personal capacity public communication may be prohibited:

1. If it contains classified information;
2. If it contains information not releasable under FOIA (e.g., protected employee information, law enforcement information, etc.);
3. If it is "highly likely to result in serious adverse consequences to the efficiency or mission of the Department."

If you believe the author's communication meets any of the above criteria, please provide a detailed explanation.

Thank you,

Hi David:

Greeting from Athens! Hope you are well.

I have a question on the two [] submissions received yesterday. They have all the appropriate State clearances, so there is no issue there.

B6

However, both articles are clearly DOD issues. So, my question is - Do you know if these articles have been reviewed by DOD?

If they have been cleared, please let us know the name/office/contact information for the reviewing official and we can complete our review process.

If DOD has not cleared, then PA will need to send it to DOD for review.

Just let us know.

Best,

Dear PA Review Office,

I recently started a fellowship here at State, and just received the final proofs for a manuscript that I am a second author on. I did the work at my previous employer (Princeton University) and as a result, am listing Princeton as my affiliate organization for the paper. In other words, I am claiming no affiliation with the State Department for this manuscript. The manuscript is a basic science research piece that uses statistical models to examine the effect of climate on human migration in South Africa. It has been accepted by the peer-review journal, Global Environmental Change.

I am not clear on whether I need to go through a formal PA Review process. In addition, as it is in the absolute final stage, the journal is requesting that we sign off on the proofs in a very short timeframe (a matter of days).

I have attached a copy of the proofs to this e-mail. I very much appreciate your guidance with this matter.

QUESTIONS TO ASK AUTHORS WHO WISH TO HAVE MANUSCRIPTS PUBLISHED

- What is the author's first and last name, current job title and office symbol?
[REDACTED] Historians Office
- Is the author writing in his/her private capacity or official capacity?
Private capacity.
- Will the author receive remuneration outside of his/her Department of State salary for the article? Note L/Ethics will need to clear if you will receive remuneration.
The author will receive remuneration for writing this material outside his Department of State salary.
- Does the author intend to use a disclaimer? If so, how will the disclaimer read?
"Finally, while this book began its life as a doctoral dissertation, it was completed after I began working for the U.S. Department of State. The views expressed here are my own, and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of State or the United States government. All U.S. documents cited here are declassified and available to any researcher."
- Who else has cleared (your supervisor, others within the Department of State)?
My supervisor, David Nickles.
- Where does the author intend to submit the article/manuscript for publication?
Indiana University Press.
- Does the paper relate in any way to the author's current duties or duties he/she had over the last year?
The book, like my work over the past year, deals with the Middle East and specifically with Arab-Israeli relations. However, it deals with events in the 1950s and 1960s, which I have not dealt with in an official capacity.

PA is charged with reviewing documents on subjects of official concern written by State Department employees in their private capacities. In doing so, we may consult with relevant bureaus.

Dear PA colleagues,

Attached, please find an essay I wrote after a panel I chaired on the subject sponsored by the Public Diplomacy Council, an academic NGO, in fall of 2013.

They want to include it as a chapter in a book. Erring on the side of caution, I told them I would need to submit it to PA.

The creation of the current Religion and Global Affairs structure is relatively current and what I've written is based entirely on public sources. I cover the creation and the speeches given at the dedication and the structure. I know little about the inner workings of this new structure and have not written about the way it has involved or the way it works beyond the bare facts of its creation.

I have not been a part of any related structure since my last job heading the Office of International Religious Freedom in 2009-2010 at which point I retired from the Foreign Service after a 30 year career. I have done WAE work but not in any field related to the religion and diplomacy theme.

Some of the earlier anecdotes from my career contained in the piece have been cleared by PA in the context of a chapter I authored almost 10 years ago. The current ECA programs I know about from my support of Imam Bashar's work, rather than by direct involvement in my career or inside knowledge of the Department. Again, all of this information is available on his websites and in his literature.

My editor was surprised I felt I needed to submit the piece but I feel I do. She is hoping that we could have your approval or a nod that nothing here is sensitive by a week from today. I know that may not be realistic, but I'm hoping someone could give it a quick read to see if anything needs closer examination.

Many thanks for your help. [redacted]
